2. CLE examinations are written at least three times a year. The information is available at our website and updated from time to time.

3. Once an application is submitted to the Council it will be examined and a decision will be made and communicated to the Applicant.
4. Applicants will have to pay in advance of each examination cycle for the subjects they intend to write and for those in which an exemption has been granted. The examination fees for each subject are determined from time to time by the Council.
5. Once an applicant pays for the examinations, the Council will provide NO refund if the candidate wishes to withdraw/defer or write the examination(s) for whatever reason. This is primarily so because the monies so paid will have been used towards the administration costs of the examinations.

Council should be notified in writing if a candidate wishes to withdraw or defer and this should be done by the Tuesday preceding the Monday on which examinations begin
